Fred,

Sorry I'm so slow in responding. The holidays had me busy. I came across your e-mail today and realized that I had never gotten back to you. As I said, Frank was a bit of a mystery. He worked for his father, Ferdinand, in the F. Meyrose and Co. lamp manufacturing company in various capacities from 1874 until about 1896. Then for several years he is still listed in the City Directories but not working at the lamp factory anymore although it is still in business. I have never found him on the 1900 census although I do have Caroline and the children listed. In a couple of censuses she is listed as widowed but he actually dies after her and in her obituary it mentions that she is the wife of Frank Meyrose. He disappears for about fifteen years. My father told us (when my father was in his eighties) that one of Ferdinand's children ran off with a traveling actors group. This has never been established but if there i!s any truth to the matter, I would pick Frank to be the likely suspect. Anyway, my guess is that he and Caroline were at least seperated or divorced. They are living at seperate addresses in 1920.

Frank was baptized Henry Francis but usually went by Francis H. or Frank H. One of the only other places that I find him referred to as Henry Franz is on his marriage record at St. Anthony's Church.

He and Caroline had five children but I don't have the same five children that you have. I will tell you what I have and what my sources are and you can compare them to yours.

Their first child is Anna Francis Carolina. We agree on her birthdate (although not her name) and I have her date of death as August 2, 1884. I got that from St. Anthony's Church records and also the Registration of Deaths in the City of St. Louis and the Cemetery records. She was three years, 1 month old at the time of her death.

Second child, Clara Marie Meyrose died in April 1956. I got that date from Calvary cemetery records. She was buried April 27, 1956 at the age of 72, next to John McDonald.

72
1884

The third child was Anna Catharine Francisca Meyrose according to her baptism record but she was known as Frances K. She married Edwin Kallmayer according to St. Anthony Church records on June 19, 1926. He was born about 1886 according to the census.

The fourth child was Maria Augusta Agnes Meyrose according to her baptism record at St. Anthony church. She was born April 23, 1887 and died January 7, 1960. She went by Agnes A. Meyrose. I have her obituary.

The fifth child was Bernadina Johanna Alexi Meyrose according to her baptism record at St. Anthony Church. She was born December 18, 1889 and died April 27, 1947. She married Augustus C. Ellebrecht who died November 19, 1954. They had four children:
August C. (b. March 18, 1920; died June 1986), Jeanette (b. Abt. 1922; married someone with the last name of Lankau), Ronald K. (born abt. 1927), and Patricia (born Aft. 1930 who married someone with the last name of Gunter.) Patricia doesn't show up on any census but is mentioned in obituaries which is also where I got her and Jeanette's married names.

You mentioned a child named John A. which I don't have. I may go back and check St. Anthony church records to see if I can find him there. I have never seen his name mentioned anywhere but that doesn't me he doesn't exist.

Also we disagree on the death date of Caroline Lager. I have her death date as February 6, 1923 according to St. Anthony church records, cemetery records and her obituary.

Summed up, this is the family tree that I have for Francis Henry Meyrose:

Descendants of Francis Henry Meyrose

As you suggest I have very little of the Frank you mention other than he did marry Maria Carolina Lager who is the tree that I am primarily interested in. I app! reciate your interest and would love to add any information that you might be willing to share. Thanks again for your interest and I hope that the holidays are good to you. Thanks again,

Subject: Family Ties

By way of introduction, I am William M. Krips and my grandfather was Leo B. Lager. His father was August J. Lager and his mother was Christina May. All of this comes from my mother's baby book. She is living and is Leo's daughter. She is nearly 87 years old, and Leo died when she was a very young girl. He is buried in Litchfield, Illinois. When I came across your history of the Lager family, I was excited and pleased. I am compiling a Family Tree for my daughter, and the Lager's are relatively unknown as Leo died during the great Flu epidemic of 1918, leaving two daughters with his wife, my grandmother, Bernice Agnes Wiegreffe of Litchifield, Illinois. My grandmother remarried one Oliver Edward Schuch, and they both passed away some years ago. Leo Lager has a long line of descendants beginning with my mother, and I will share this with you, if you will let me know what is the best way for you to deal with the information. I am using the Family Tree Maker program to organize the information.

I note that you do not show a Leo B. Lager as a son of August J. Lager, but do show a Leo Herman Lager. I guess I would ask how sure you are of that middle name?

For fun, I attach a copy of a photo of my grandfather, known as Leo B. Lager.

William M. Krips

I look forward to hearing from you.

Eva Krips

Eva Marie Lager Krips, formerly of Litchfield, died Thursday, September 26, 2002, in her home in Ypsilanti, Michigan. She was 86 years old last November 4.

Known to many as "Boots," she was a daughter of Bernice Agnes Wiegreffe Lager of Litchfield and Leo B. Lager, who was originally from St. Louis. Her father died in 1918 when she was just 3 years old. When she was 14 years old the family moved to Detroit, Mich., where her mother married Oliver Edward Schuch, formerly of Edwardsville and an executive with U.S. Radiator there.

The Wiegreffe family was among the earliest settlers in the area. Her great grandfather, William J. Wiegreffe, settled first in the Zanesville area then in 1868 came to Litchfield with his wife of seven years, Eva Sinn Wiegreff. Both came from Germany, he in 1850, and she in 1861. They started a lumber business in Litchfield, which he operated until his death in 1904. He was a city alderman for several years.

Her grandfather, Frederick J. Wiegreffe, was mayor of Litchfield around 1900. His wife, Delia, was a daughter of Timothy and Catherine Quinlan Lynch, a pioneer family in the Litchfield area.

In addition to Eva Marie's mother, Bernice, Frederick and Delia had three other children, Lorraine, Mildred and William Wiegreffe. Lorraine was a music instructor and organist at the old St. Mary's Church for many years while Mildred worked as a housekeeper. They resided together at 600 South State street. William lived in St. Louis where he held a responsible position in the office of the St. Louis South - Western Railway.

Eva Marie married William Harrison Krips of Philadelphia, Pa., in 1936; he preceded her in death.

Surviving are four children, William Michael Krips of Houston, Texas, Patricia Lee Krips Pelletier of Charleston, S.C., Timothy Oliver Krips of Walled Lake, Mich., and Thomas Leo Krips of Dexter, Mich.; 10 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Funeral Mass was said at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church in Ypsilanti. Burial was in St. John's Cemetery there.

Hi Fred:
Thank you very much for the file. Yes, we are there. I am the greatgrandson of Leo August Lager who you show on page 1 as a son of Joannes Gerardus Lager. Leopold's brother is Johann Bernhard Lager shown also on page one. They ran a tailor shop in Saint Louis, B.Lager, Brother and Company, along with Phillip August Nieman from Germany. We have about the same birth dates, but my were calculated from other than original records. I assume your's are from the originals in Lengerich or a bible or something else. I will be able to fill out the lives of Leo's children (Katie Lager was my grandmother) as well as Bernhardt's (AKA Barney). Just give me some time to digest what you sent. I correspond with Carl Schoendienst of Long Beach. He is also a Lager and if you give your permission, I will forward your document to him. But not until I hear from you.

I was a system designer myself before I retired. Started on an IBM Ramac 650 at Washington U when I went there. I retired from McDonnell Douglas Information System Group a few years ago.

I found you on page 81/82, of 162 pages. This is after conversion to Perfect Works. Is Mercedes T. Lager still living in Maryville MO? I'd like to contact her to see if an extra copy of her book is still around. Otherwise, maybe I can find one on interlibrary loan.

Regards, and thanks again. I going to do some reading this evening. :)

The information that I have on Odile is based on an Email: from Greg Rehme to me dated - 02 November 1998. Greg is a distant relative on the side of my father. It appears the way I have it on my DB, that Odile was a 3rd cousin of mine. If you have any additional information re. him, please let me know. Again, thank for taking the time to get in touch with me and I look forward to hearing from you again.

JOSEPH CLINTON CRIDER, JUNIOR

He was the eighth and youngest child of Joseph and Priscilla (Reed) Crider. He was born in Gasconade County, Missouri, on 25 December 1838. His mother, Priscilla Crider, died a few years after his birth on 8 January 1841. Joseph was then taken by his maternal grandparents, John and Druscilla Reed, and raised to maturity by them. His early childhood and days of adolescence were spent on the land that was to become his home for the remainder of his life. He was given the opportunity to receive a fair education for the time and throughout his life made every effort to benefit from his education. At the age of nineteen years, on 10 August 1857, his grandparents gave him a deed to their old homestead that included one hundred and twenty acres in the bottom of the Dry Fork of the Bourbeuse River. On 17 November 1859, he was married to Ann Eliza Hendrix, daughter of Samuel and Mary (Durbin) Hendrix, of Webster County, Missouri. Ann E. Hendrix was born on 16 November 1841, in what was then Wright County (now part of Webster County) Missouri. They then made their home on the old Reed homestead in Gasconade County, where he managed the plantation that was worked by the Reed slaves. With the advent of the Civil War, he was enrolled in the 34th Regiment of Missouri Enrolled Militia and was on duty with that unit during the famous Price raid in 1864. In February of 1865, he was inducted in the Union Army at St. Louis and was assigned to Company I, 124th Illinois Infantry, at Vicksburg, Mississippi He was present and in combat with that unit at the battle of Spanish Fort, Alabama, in April 1865. The months following were spent in occupation duty at Montgomery, Alabama. When this unit was deactivated, he [illegible] transferred to the 11th Missouri Infantry Volunteers and was on duty with that unit at Memphis, Tennessee and Camp Doug[illegible], Illinois. He was discharged in the spring of 1866. He then returned to his home and family in Gasconade County, where he acquired additional land and expanded the old homestead. He was generally known by friends and many relatives as "Uncle Joe" . He died of a paralytic stroke on 9 April 1921. His wife Ann Eliza Crider died on 9 June 1917. Both are buried in the Crider Cemetery, near their old home. The children, grandchildren and many other descendants of Joseph C. and Ann Eliza Crider, nee Hendrix, are given from family records.

(1) SARAH ELLEN CRIDER

She was born in Gasconade County, Missouri, on 24 September 1860. One of her childhood memories was that of the Reed slaves who were employed by her father for a short time after his return from the army. On 19 February 1879, she was married to Jackson Stockton, son of John H. and Louisiana Stockton, nee Caldwell. He was born in what is now Maries County, Missouri, on 22 December 1843. They made their home on the Stockton homestead, where Jackson was born. He, too, was a Civil War veteran, having enlisted early in the war in a Confederate unit, serving under General Price. He was present at the famous battle of Wilson's Creek, near Springfield, Missouri. The Jackson Stockton farm, located near the Juncture of Pea Vine and Dry Fork Creeks in eastern Maries County, is one of the few, if not the only, homestead in that area to be constantly occupied by the same family and descendants from its date of purchase until the present time (1976). Jackson and Sarah Stockton lived the remainder of their lives there after their marriage. Jackson Stockton died on 6 April 1924, and his wife Sarah E. Stockton died on 14 August 1936. Both are buried in the Grove Dale Cemetery in eastern Maries County, Missouri. The children and many other descendants of Jackson and Sarah Ellen Stockton, nee Crider, are given from family records.

A. NAPOLEON BONAPART STOCKTON

He was known as N. B. Stockton and was born in Maries County, Missouri, on 14 August 1880. His first marriage was to Sinetta Sands on 27 February 1904. She was born on 17 May 1879 and died on 7 April 1941. For many years, they made their home at Iona, Missouri, but later relocated at Bland, Missouri. He was an agent and operator for the Rock Island railroad. The children and descendants of N. B. and Sinetta Stockton, nee Sands, are given from family records. N. B. Stockton marr

Fred,

Thank you so much for your information! I had no idea that the Criders were from Switerzland, its one more piece of the puzzle.
I will check out the Genforum for William's address. Frances is my great grandmother, she married Walter William Fitzgerald. They had lived in Bland, and had six children together. Ruby Fitzgerald was one of there daughters who married Victor Bossaller. They had my mom, Vickie Sue Bossaller who was born on Oct. 16th, 1955. I was born Nov. 14th, 1972. Did you happen to know Frances or her parents? Hope you have a safe trip to KS. and happy thanks giving!

Handmade valentine ca. 1890.

This valentine, the property of Leona Heien, was made by her mother, Bettie Baumgartner Nie, during the early nineties. It is made of wine-colored cloth stitched to stiff cardboard. Each scalloped paper corner contains a verse and is trimmed with the appropriately colored bow. The verses read:

Upper right: If of me you sometimes think
Send me back my bow of pink
Lower right: If with me you will elope
Send back my bow of heliotrope
Lower left: If you wish me for your wife
Send me back my bow of white
Upper left: If for me your love is true
Send me back my bow of blue
Center Heart: If for me there is no hope
Send me back 6 feet of rope

THE BOWLES MANSION ON LANES PRAIRIE - CA. 1980

The stately home of Doctor William H. Bowles was built about 1877 and still stands today on Highway Z about two miles west of Highway 28. It is in a dilapidated state and is almost hidden from travelers by a natural growth of trees and shrubs. Dr. Bowles successfully practiced medicine for 50 years at Lanes Prairie. The mansion was named "Greatwood" after his second wife.

Clay Mining Now in Full Blast. .....Most old pits are working and some new ones being added. Perhaps the largest is the one on Lanes Prairie near Lindell recently opened by Dewitt Terrill. .... has been in operation about 3 weeks, but have moved many ton of clay. About 20 men are employed......clay is transported in seven trucks owned by Mr. Terrill...............The largest of the older pits is the Roger-Miller pit operated by Ed Withouse.

Wm. Terrill is listed as a teacher in Bland in 1911.
